1. Application will get all prices for a particular month year from pricing.json file.
2. Pricing.json contains prices for cycle components
3. After loading all the prices, queue is used which simultaneously computes the cost of the cycle with all the fields.
4. Year HashMap is used to store the particular year data with key as year and value as Month HashMap.
5. Month HashMap store the data with key as Month name in lowername and value cycle data prices
6. Application Expects pricing file name(pricing.json) Number_of_vehicle Month Name Year Name.